Amendment of Section 3 of Act IX of 1891 – In Section 3 of the Prisons Act, 1894, hereinafter referred to as the said Act, for clause (5), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely: –

“(5) ‘Remission system’ means the system of regulating the award of marks to, and the consequent shortening of sentences of, prisoners in jail in accordance with the rules for the item being in force.

(5-A) ‘Furlough system’ means the system of releasing prisoners in jail on furlough in accordance with the rules for the time being in force.”⁹

Chapter II

Maintenance and officers of prisons

4. Accommodation for prisoners. – The State Government shall provide, for the prisoners in the territories under such Government, accommodation in prisons constructed and regulated in such manner as to comply with the requisitions of this Act in respect of the separation of prisoners.

5. Inspector General. – An Inspector General shall be appointed for the territories subject to each State Government, and shall exercise, subject to the orders of the State Government, the general control and superintendence of all prisons situated in the territories under such Government.

6. Officers of prisons. – For every prison there shall be a Superintendent, a Medical Officer (who may also be the Superintendent), a Medical Subordinate, a Jailer and such other officers as the State Government thinks necessary:

Provided that the State Government of Bombay may declare by order in writing that in any prison specified in the order the office of Jailer shall be held by the person appointed to be Superintendent.

7. Temporary accommodation for prisoners. – Whenever it appears to the Inspector General that the number of prisoners in any prison is greater than can conveniently or safely be kept therein, and it is not convenient to transfer the excess number to some other prison, or whenever from the outbreak of epidemic disease within any prison, or for any other reason, it is desirable to provide for the temporary shelter and safe custody of any prisoners, provision shall be made, by such officer and in such manner as the State Government may direct, for the shelter and safe custody in temporary prisons of so many of the prisoners as cannot be conveniently or safely kept in the prison.

Chapter III

Duties of Officers

Generally

8. Control and duties of officers of prisons. – All officers of a prison shall obey the directions of the Superintendent; all officers subordinate to the Jailer shall perform such duties as may be imposed on them by the Jailer with the sanction of the Superintendent or be prescribed by rules under Section 59.

9. Officers not to have business dealings with prisoners. – No officer of a prison shall sell or let, nor shall any person in trust for or employed by him sell or let, or derive any benefit from selling or letting, any article to any prisoner or have any money or other business dealings, directly or indirectly, with any prisoner.

10. Officers not to be interested in prison-contracts. – No officer of a prison shall, nor shall any person in trust for or employed by him, have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract for the supply of the prison; nor shall he derive any benefit, directly or indirectly, from the sale or purchase of any article on behalf of the prison or belonging to a prisoner.

Superintendent

11. Superintendent. – (1) Subject to the orders of the Inspector General, the Superintendent shall manage the prison in all matters relating to discipline, labour, expenditure, punishment and control.

(2) Subject to such general or special directions as may be given by the State Government, the Superintendent of a prison other than a central prison or a prison situated in a Presidency-town shall obey all orders not inconsistent with this Act or any rule thereunder which may be given respecting the prison by the District Magistrate, and shall report to the Inspector General all such orders and the action taken thereon.

State Amendment

Andhra Pradesh

In sub-section (2) of Section 11 for the words “the District Magistrate”, the words “District Collector” shall be substituted.

12. Records to be kept by Superintendent. – The Superintendent shall keep, or cause to be kept, the following records:

1. A register of prisoners admitted;
2. A book showing when each prisoner is to be released;
3. A punishment-book for the entry of the punishments inflicted on prisoners for prison-offences;
4. A visitors' book for the entry of any observations made by the visitors touching any matters connected with the administration of the prison ;
5. A record of the money and other articles taken from prisoners ; and all such other records as may be prescribed by rules under section 59.

Medical Officer

13. Duties of Medical Officer. – Subject to the control of the Superintendent, the Medical Officer shall have charge of the sanitary administration of the prison, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government under section 59.

14. Medical Officer to report in certain cases. – Whenever the Medical Officer has reason to believe that the mind of a prisoner is, or is likely to be, injuriously affected by the discipline or treatment to which he is subjected, the Medical Officer shall report the case in writing to the Superintendent, together with such observations as he may think proper. This report, with the orders of the Superintendent thereon, shall forthwith be sent to the Inspector General for information.

15. Report on death of prisoner. – On the death of any prisoner, the Medical Officer shall forthwith record in a register the following particulars, so far as they can be ascertained, namely:

1. The day on which the deceased first complained of illness or was observed to be ill,
2. The labour, if any, on which he was engaged on that day,
3. The scale of his diet on that day,
4. The day on which he was admitted to hospital,
5. The day on which the medical officer was first informed of the illness,
6. The nature of the disease,
7. When the deceased was last seen before his death by the medical officer or medical subordinate,
8. When the prisoner died, and
9. (In cases where a postmortem examination is made) an account of the appearances after death, together with any special remarks that appear to the medical officer to be required to be made.

Jailer

16. Jailer. – (1) The Jailer shall reside in the prison, unless the Superintendent permits him in writing to reside elsewhere.

(2) The Jailer shall not, without the Inspector General's sanction in writing, be concerned in any other employment.

17. Jailer to give notice of death of prisoner. – Upon the death of a prisoner, the Jailer shall give immediate notice thereof to the Superintendent and the Medical Subordinate.

18. Responsibility of Jailer. – The Jailer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the records to be kept under Section 12 for the commitment warrants and all other documents confined to his care and for the money and other articles taken from prisoners.

19. Jailer to be present at night. – The Jailer shall not be absent from prison for a night without permission in writing from the Superintendent; but, if absent without leave for a night from unavoidable necessity, he shall immediately report the fact and the cause of it to the Superintendent.

20. Power of Deputy and Assistant Jailers. – Where a Deputy Jailer or Assistant Jailer is appointed to a prison, he shall subject to the orders of the Superintendent, be competent to perform any of the duties, and be subject to all the responsibilities, of a Jailer under this Act or any rule thereunder.

Subordinate Officers

21. Duties of gate-keeper. – The officer acting as gate-keeper, or any other officer of the prison, may examine anything carried in or out of the prison, and may stop and search or cause to be searched any person suspected of bringing any prohibited article in or out of the prison, or of carrying out any property belonging to the prison, and, if any such article or property be found, shall give immediate notice thereof to the Jailer.

22. Subordinate officers not to be absent without leave. – Officers subordinate to the Superintendent shall not be absent from the prison without leave from the Superintendent or the Jailer.

23. Convict officers. – Prisoners who have been appointed as officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

Chapter IV

Admission, Removal and Discharge of Prisoners

24. Prisoners to be examined on admission. – (1) Whenever a person is admitted into prison, he shall be searched and all weapons and prohibited articles shall be taken from him.

(2) Every criminal prisoner shall also, as soon as possible after admission, be examined under the general or special orders of the Medical Officer, who shall enter or cause to be entered in a book, to be kept by the Jailer, a record of that state of the prisoner's health and of any wounds or marks on his person, the class of labour he is fit for, if sentenced to rigorous imprisonment, and any observations which the Medical Officer thinks fit to add.

(3) In the case of female prisoners the search and examination shall be carried out by the Matron under the general or special order of the Medical Officer.

25. Effects of prisoners. – All money or other articles in respect whereof no order of a competent Court has been made, and may with proper authority be brought into the prison by any criminal prisoner or to the prison for his use, shall be placed in custody of the Jailer.

26. Removal and discharge of prisoners. – (1) All prisoners, previously being removed to any other prison, shall be examined by the Medical Officer.

(2) No prisoner shall be removed from one prison to another unless the Medical Officer certifies that the prisoner is free from any illness rendering him unfit for removal.

(3) No prisoner shall be discharged against his will from prison, if labouring under any acute or dangerous distemper, not until, in the opinion of the Medical Officer, such discharge is safe.

Chapter V

Discipline of Prisoners

27. Separation of prisoners. – The requisitions of this Act with respect to the separation of prisoners are as follows:

- (1) In a prison containing female as well as male prisoners, the females shall be imprisoned in separate buildings or separate parts of the same building, in such a manner as to prevent their seeing, or conversing or holding any intercourse with, the male prisoners;
- (2) In a prison where male prisoners under the age of twenty-one¹⁰ are confined, means shall be provided for separating them altogether from the other prisoners and for separating those of them who have arrived at the age of puberty from those who have not;
- (3) Unconvicted criminal prisoners shall be kept apart from convicted prisoners; and
- (4) Civil prisoners shall be kept apart from criminal prisoners.

28. Association and segregation of prisoners. – Subject to the requirements of the last foregoing section, convicted criminal prisoners may be confined either in association or individually in cells or partly in one way and partly in the other.

29. Solitary confinement. – No cell shall be used for solitary confinement unless it is furnished with the means enabling the prisoner to communicate at any time with an officer of the prison, and ever prisoner so confined in a cell for more than twenty-four hours, whether as a punishment or otherwise, shall be visited at least once a day by the Medical Officer or Medical Subordinate.

30. Prisoners under sentence of death. – (1) Every prisoner under sentence of death shall, immediately on his arrival in the prison after sentence, be searched by, or by the order of, the Jailer and all articles shall be taken from him, which the Jailer deems it dangerous or inexpedient to leave in his possession.

(2) Every such prisoner shall be confined in a cell apart from all other prisoners, and shall be places by day and by night under the charge of a guard.

Chapter VI

Food, Clothing and Bedding of Civil and Unconvicted Criminal Prisoners

31. Maintenance of certain prisoners from private sources. – A civil prisoner or an unconvicted criminal prisoner shall be permitted to maintain himself, and to purchase, or receive from private sources at proper hours, food, clothing, bedding or other necessaries, but subject to examination and to such rules as may be approved by the Inspector General.

32. Restriction on transfer of food and clothing between certain prisoners. – No part of any food, clothing, bedding or other necessaries belonging to any civil or unconvicted criminal prisoner shall be given, hired or sold to any other prisoner; and any prisoner transgressing the provisions of this section shall lose the privilege of purchasing food or receiving it from private sources, for such time as the Superintendent thinks proper.

¹⁰ Substituted by Act VI of 1930, for the word “eighteen”

33. Supply of clothing and bedding to civil and unconvicted criminal prisoners. – (1) Every civil and unconvicted criminal prisoner unable to provide himself with sufficient clothing and bedding shall be supplied by the Superintendent with such clothing and bedding as may be necessary.

(2) When any civil prisoner has been committed to prison in execution of a decree in favour of a private person, such person, or his representative shall, within forty-eight hours after the receipt by him of a demand in writing, pay to the Superintendent the cost of clothing and bedding so supplied to the prisoner; and in default of such payment the prisoner may be released.

State Amendment

Andhra Pradesh

In Section 33 of the Prisons Act, 1894 for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:

“(2) When a civil prisoner has been committed to prison by a Court in execution of any decree or order in favour of a private person, such person shall immediately deposit or cause to be deposited in Court, to meet the cost of the prisoner’s clothing and bedding, such amount as may be fixed by the Court in accordance with the rules if any, made by the State Government in that behalf; and in default of such deposit, the prisoner may be released.”¹¹

Chapter VII

Employment of Prisoners

34. Employment of civil prisoners. – (1) Civil prisoners may, with the Superintendent’s permission, work and follow any trade and profession.

(2) Civil prisoners finding their own implements, and not maintained at the expense of the prison, shall be allowed to receive the whole of their earnings; but the earnings of such as are furnished with implements or are maintained at the expense of the prison shall be subject to a deduction, to be determined by the Superintendent, for the use of implements and cost of maintenance.

35. Employment of criminal prisoners. – (1) No criminal prisoner sentenced to labour or employed on labour at his own desire shall, except on an emergency with the sanction in writing of the Superintendent, be kept to labour for more than nine hours in any one day.

(2) The Medical Officer shall from time to time examine the labouring prisoners while they are employed, and shall at least once in every fortnight cause to be recorded upon the history-ticket of each prisoner employed on labour the weight of such prisoner at the time.

(3) When the Medical Officer is of the opinion that the health of any prisoner suffers from employment of any kind or class of labour, such prisoner shall not be employed on that labour but shall be placed on such other kind or class of labour as the Medical Officer may consider suited for him.

State Amendment

Andhra Pradesh

In sub-section (1) of Section 35, for the words “nine hours” the words “eight hours” shall be substituted.¹²

36. Employment of criminal prisoners sentenced to simple imprisonment. – Provisions shall be made by the Superintendent for the employment (as long as they so desire) of all criminal prisoners sentenced to simple imprisonment; but no prisoner not sentenced to rigorous imprisonment shall be punished for neglect of work excepting by such alteration in the scale of diet as may be established by the rules of the prison in the case of neglect of work by such prisoner.

Chapter VIII

Health of Prisoners

37. Sick prisoners. – (1) The names of prisoners desiring to see the Medical Subordinate or appearing out of health in mind or body shall, without delay, be reported by the officer in immediate charge of such persons to the Jailer.

(2) The Jailer shall, without delay, call the attention of the Medical Subordinate to any prisoner desiring to see him, or who is ill, or whose state of mind and body appears to require attention, and shall carry into effect all written directions given by the Medical Officer or Medical Subordinate respecting alterations of the discipline or treatment of any such prisoner.

38. Record of directions of Medical Officer. – All directions given by the Medical Officer or the Medical Subordinate in relation to any prisoner, with exception of orders for supply of medicines or directions relating to such matters as are carried into effect by the Medical Officer himself or under his superintendence, shall be entered day by day in the prisoner’s history-ticket or in such other record as the State Government may by rule direct, and the Jailer shall make an entry in its proper place stating in respect of each direction the facts of its having been or not having been complied with, accompanied by observations, if any, as the Jailer thinks fit to make, and the date of the entry.

39. Hospital. – In every prison a hospital or proper place for the reception of sick prisoners shall be provided.

State Amendment

Andhra Pradesh

After Section 39 of the Prisons Act, 1894, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

¹² Vide A.P. Act 23 of 1958, Schedule.

“39-A. Power of Superintendent to send a prisoner to hospital or asylum for special treatment. – The Superintendent may, if in his opinion, a prisoner requires special treatment in a hospital outside the prison in an asylum as defined in Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, send him to such hospital or asylum subject to the prisoner executing such bond and abiding by such other conditions, if any, as the State Government may by rule or order prescribe. Any period during which the prisoner is undergoing treatment in such hospital or asylum or spent by him in going thereto or returning therefrom shall be deemed to be part of the period of his detention in prison.

Explanation – Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect the operation of Section 30 of the Prisoners Act, 1900, in cases to which that section applies.¹³

A.P. Amendment of Section 39-A, Central Act 9 of 1894 – In Section 39-A of the Prisons Act, 1894 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the explanation shall be renumbered as Explanation I and the following shall be added as Explanation II, namely: –

A.P. Insertion of new Sections 39-B and 39-C in Central Act 9 of 1894

“Explanation II – In this section, “prisoner means a convicted criminal prisoner.”

After Section 39-A of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely: –

“39-B. Punishment for escape or attempt to escape from hospital or asylum. – If any prisoner dealt with under Section 39-A escapes or attempts to escape from the hospital or asylum to which he has been sent or when going thereto or returning therefrom, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

The punishment under this section shall be in addition to the punishment for which the prisoner was liable for the offence of which he was already convicted.

39-C. Provisions applicable to bonds referred to in Section 39-A. – The provisions of Chapter XLII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall so far as may be, apply to the bonds referred to in Section 39-A.”¹⁴

Chapter IX

Visits to Prisoners

40. Visits to civil and unconvicted prisoners. – Due provision shall be made for the admission, at proper times and under proper restrictions into every prison of persons with whom civil or unconvicted criminal prisoners may desire to communicate, care being taken that so far as may be consistent with the interests of justice, prisoners under-trial may see their duly qualified legal advisers without the presence of any other person.

¹³ Vide A.P. Act 14 of 1938, Sec.2.

¹⁴ Vide A.P. Act 5 of 1940, Sections 2 and 3.

41. Search of visitors. – (1) The Jailer may demand the name and address of any visitor to a prisoner, and when the Jailer has any ground for suspicion, may search any visitor, or cause him to be searched, but the search shall not be made in the presence of any prisoner or of another visitor.

(2) In case of any visitor refusing to permit himself to be searched the Jailer may deny him admission; and grounds of such proceeding, with the particulars thereof, shall be entered in such record as the State Government may direct.

Chapter X

Offences in relations to Prisons

42. Penalty for introduction or removal of prohibited articles into or from prison and communication with prisoners. – Whoever, contrary to any rule under Section 59 introduces or removes or attempts by any means whatsoever to introduce or remove, into or from any prison, or supplies or attempts to supply to any prisoner, outside the limits of a prison any prohibited article, and every officer of a prison who, contrary to any such rule, knowingly suffers any such article to be introduced into or removed from any prison, to be possessed by any prisoner, or to be supplied to any prisoner outside the limits of a prison, and whoever, contrary to any such rule, communicates or attempt to communicate with any prisoner, and whoever abets any offence made punishable by this section, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both.

43. Power to arrest for offence under Section 42. – When any person, in the presence of any officer of a prison, commits any offence specified in the last foregoing section, and refuses on demand of such officer to state his name and residence, or gives a name or residence which such officer knows, or has reason to believe, to be false, such officer may arrest him, and shall without unnecessary delay make him over to a police officer, and thereupon such police officer shall proceed as if the offence has been committed in his presence.

44. Publications of penalties. – The Superintendent shall cause to be affixed, in a conspicuous place outside the prison, a notice in English and the vernacular setting forth the acts prohibited under Section 42 and the penalties incurred by their commission.

Chapter XI

Prison Offences

45. Prison offences. – The following acts are declared to be prison offences when committed by a prisoner:

1. Such willful disobedience to any regulation of the prison as shall have been declared by rules made under Section 59 to be a prison offence;
2. Any assault or use of criminal force;
3. The use of insulting or threatening language;
4. Immoral or indecent or disorderly behaviour;
5. Willfully disabling himself from labour;

6. Contumaciously refusing to work;
7. Filing, cutting, altering or removing handcuffs, fetters or bars without due authority;
8. Willful idleness or negligence at work by any prisoner sentenced to rigorous imprisonment;
9. Willful mismanagement of work by any prisoner sentenced to rigorous imprisonment;
10. Willful damage to prison property;
11. Tampering with or defacing history-tickets, records or documents;
12. Receiving, possessing or transferring any prohibited article;
13. Feigning illness;
14. Willfully bringing a false accusation against any officer or prisoner;
15. Omitting or refusing to report, as soon as it comes to his knowledge, the occurrence of any fire, any plot or conspiracy, any escape, and any attack or preparation for attack upon any prisoner or prison official;
16. Conspiring to escape, or assist in escaping, or to commit any other of the offences aforesaid.

46. Punishment of such offences. – The Superintendent may examine any person touching any offence, and determine thereupon, and punish such offence by –

1. A formal warning

Explanation – A formal warning shall mean a warning personally addressed to a prisoner by a Superintendent and recorded in the punishment-book and on the prisoner's history-ticket;

2. Change of labour to some irksome or severe form [for such period as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government]¹⁵;
3. Hard labour for a period not exceeding seven days in the case of convicted criminal prisoners not sentenced to rigorous imprisonment;
4. Such loss of privileges admissible under the remission system for the time being in force as may be by the State Government;
5. The substitution of gunny or other coarse fabric for clothing of other material, not being swollen, for a period which shall not exceed three months;
6. Imposition of handcuffs of such pattern and weight, in such manner and for such period, as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government;
7. Imposition of fetters of such pattern and weight, in such manner and for such period, as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government;
8. Separate confinement for any period not exceeding three months.

Explanation – Separate confinement means such confinement with or without labour as secludes a prisoner from communication with, but not from sight of, other prisoners, and allows him not less than one hour's exercise per diem and to have meals in association with one or more other prisoners;

9. Penal diet, that is, restriction of diet in such a manner and subject to such conditions regarding labour as may be prescribed by the State Government:

Provided that such restriction of diet shall in no case be applied to a prisoner for more than ninety-six consecutive hours, and shall not be repeated except for a fresh offence nor until an interval of one week;

10. Cellular confinement for any period not exceeding fourteen days:

Provided that after each period of cellular confinement an interval of not less duration than such period must elapse before the prisoner is again sentenced to cellular or solitary confinement.

Explanation – Cellular confinement means such confinement with or without labour as entirely secludes a prisoner from communications with but not from sight of other prisoners;

¹⁵ Inserted by Act 17 of 1925, Sec.2.

11. Penal diet as defined in Clause (9) combined with ¹⁶cellular confinement;
12. ¹⁷Whipping provided that the number of strips shall not exceed thirty:
Provided that nothing in this section shall render any female or civil prisoner liable to the imposition of any form of handcuffs or fetters, or to whipping.

State Amendments

In Section 46 –
